

Ordinance No. 5, Series 1902

An ordinance prohibiting stock running at large within the city of Elgin.

The people of the city of Elgin, Or., do ordain as follows:

Sec 1 That no horses, mules or cattle shall be allowed to run at large or be herded in any of the streets, alleys, parks or public places of the city of Elgin, Or. from the 30th day of Nov, 1902, until otherwise ordered by the Mayor except when being driven through for shipment or other purposes.

Sec 2 That any of the animals described in Sec. 1. of this Ordinance found running at large in the city of Elgin, contrary to the provisions of this Ordinance, shall be taken up by the city marshal and impounded in a pound or enclosure such animal being provided with proper food and care while so confined.

Sec 3 That the marshal give immediate notice of the taking up of such animal with a proper description thereof, by posting the same in some conspicuous place at the pound.

Sec 4 That animal so taken up, at the expiration of five days from date of notice, shall be sold by the marshal at public auction, after due notice to consist of at least one insertion in a newspaper published in the city of Elgin, and, after deducting his legal fees and all expenses and costs of taking up, keeping and selling, shall pay the remainder to the city treasurer.

Sec 5 If at any time before such sale, the owner of any animal so taken up, shall claim them, he or she shall be entitled to their recovery upon payment of all legal charges and expenses incidental to taking and keeping.

Sec 6 That the owner of any animal so sold, shall, if he or she make sufficient proof of the ownership thereof within one year from date of sale be entitled to receive the net proceeds of such sale.

Sec 7 That the marshal shall receive one dollar for each animal impounded by him.

Sec 8 That this ordinance shall be in full force and effect on and after its approval by the Mayor and being posted in three public places in the city of Elgin for three days.

Approved this 30th day of Oct, 1902
